THREE YOUNG CHILDREN PERISH IN FIRE

Fire took the lives of three young children in Drayton Valley, on Tuesday, January 20 when the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morrill, Jr. was almost completely destroyed. The children were Irene, aged three, Dale, aged 19 months and baby Margaret, aged 3 months.

The fire alarm sounded at 12:40 p.m. and the Fire Department responded quickly. However, by the time they arrived the fire had much headway. Among the first on the scene was Lloyd Webber, a dealer for S & T Drilling Company, who saw smoke pouring from the Morrill house and ran over, and Mrs. Patterson, a next-door neighbor. Mr. Floyd Morrill, Sr. and Mrs. Isabel Morrill, the mother of the three children arrived immediately and Mr. Webber and Mr. Morrill, Sr. crawled in through the front door on their hands and knees because of the heavy concentration of smoke and flames in the house. Immediate object of their search was the large living room chair where Mrs. Morrill had left the baby when she stepped out for a moment to go to the home of her brother-in-law, two houses away, to borrow some salt. When the two men brought the chair out through the dense smoke, however, they found that the baby was not in it. Apparently the oldest girl had carried the baby from the chair into the bedroom away from the fire and had attempted to shut a dog between the two rooms.

Plywood was then hastily torn off the wall on the end of the building where the bedroom was located and Mr. Webber went through and got one of the children, believed to have been Dale, who was laying on the bed. By that time the fire department had arrived, and Carl Clauson quickly donned the mask from the fire truck and went back through the hole in the wall into the burning bedroom. Feeling around in the dense smoke and fumes he located the other two children and passed them out through the opening in the wall. The three children were immediately rushed to the Drayton Valley Hospital but it was found that they were dead on arrival at the hospital. The bodies were taken by Drayton Valley Ambulance to Foster-McGarvey Funeral Chapel. Funeral services were held for the three children from Drayton Valley United Church at 2:00 p.m. Thursday, January 20th, with the Reverend Abilene Wright officiating. Interment was in Drayton Valley Cemetery.

Another motion which was carried was to the effect that the local Chamber of Commerce pay 1960 membership dues to the Provincial Association of Chambers of Commerce.

A letter was read from a Chioplastic doctor asking about the possibility of locating in the Town of Drayton Valley. Mr. J. Carson, Mr. H. Zollner and Mr. H. Pickup were appointed by motion as a committee to investigate the matter more fully. A motion was passed to form a Red Cross group in Drayton Valley. It was felt that with the Red Cross group formed here Blood Donor Clinics and Red Cross drives, etc. would get wider publicity and support. It was decided at the meeting that further copies of the "Pembina News" of the Town of Drayton Valley, copies of which were shown to the members, would be obtained.

The big question of the evening, however, remained to the last... the possibility of all retail merchants in Drayton Valley closing for a half day or a full day sometime during the week. No definite action was taken on the day of half day closing, but a motion was passed and approved that the Monday night late shopping Christmas tree. A motion to pay several small bills was carried, as will be brought by the Chamber was also a motion that the Chamber to the Town Council for the passing of a by-law to amend the (cont. page 12, column 3)

The above picture shows the hole in the end of the building through which the three young children of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morrill, Jr. were brought out of the burning building.

The picture to the left is a front view of the house. In the front of the house may be seen the chair which was brought from the burning building in the belief that the baby was in it.

YOUNG VIOLET GROVE CHILD CRITICALLY BURNED

Children playing with matches was apparently the cause of a fire that destroyed a three-room house in Violet Grove. The house belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Erban Carrothers. Mr. Carrothers is employed with Atlantic Wire Line Ltd. in Violet Grove. Five children were in the house at the time of the fire, which occurred on Monday, January 25. The children were: Betty, aged 5, Vernon, aged 4, Brian, aged 2 1/2, Janice, aged 18 months and Baby Terry, aged 4 months. All the children were taken out of the house, without injury except Brian, who received extensive burns about the body. Young Brian was rushed to Drayton Valley Hospital; he was later removed to Royal Alexandra Hospital to be placed under the care of a specialist. It is expected that he will be hospitalized for a considerable length of time.

The fire started in the kitchen, where the children were playing, and spread rapidly to the rest of the house. When Mrs. Carrothers rushed into the house she found a near tragedy had been averted when five year old Betty had taken the baby from the basket where he had been left. When Mrs. Carrothers got into the house she found the baby's basket on fire, but the little Terry had been removed by his sister. Badly burned Brian was brought out through the door, but the doorway was then enveloped in flames and the rest were passed out through a window. Mrs. Carrothers had been outside for a few minutes when the fire started and she heard the screams of Brian, who was sleeping on the cheerfield when the fire took place. A bucket brigade was quickly formed by Violet Grove residents and snow was thrown on the fire. Two Mobil Oil trucks were also at the scene and the fire extinguishers from the trucks aided in putting out the flames along with water from a tank truck. Donations are being taken for the Carrothers family; any more for the Violet Grove will accept whatever anyone wishes to give.

DAVIES-SCOTT WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Davies

The United Church in Drayton Valley on January 23 at 5:30 p.m. was the scene for a wedding of great local interest. Miss Sherry Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott of Drayton Valley and one of the community's most popular young ladies, became the bride of Charles W. Davies son of Mr. and Mrs. William Davies who are also Drayton Valley residents. The church was decorated with baskets of winter tone mums and was lighted with tapered candles. Sherry's attendants preceded her down the aisle carrying nosegays of white and yellow carnations, each nosegay being entered with a lighted candle. The bridesmaids, Carol Lindskog and Sheila Vandergrieff, were attractively dressed in ballerina length semi-formals and small feathered hair bands in matching colors. Miss Lindskog was wearing a pastel aqua color and Miss Vandergrieff's dress was a delicate coral shade. Both bridesmaids wore white slippers and short white gloves. Miss Eunice Davies, sister of the groom, was the maid of honor and she was becomingly dressed in a sile green semi formal of lace with a matching jacket. Miss Davies wore a sile green feathered hair band and her shoes were also green to complement her ensemble. Following her attendants, the bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father. The bride looked breathtakingly beautiful as she approached the groom at the altar. She was wearing the traditional white wedding dress of white satin and lace. The full skirt was floor length and the fitted bodice and boat neck line were ornamented with sequins and seed pearls and the long sleeves were trimmed by points of lace extending past the wrists. The two tiered chapel length veil was held in place by a halo crown of pearls and sequins. To add charm to the already lovely bride she was wearing the groom's gift which was a gold chain necklace with a single sweetheart pearl. She carried a full cascade of red rose buds. Reverend Athlon Wright performed the candlelight double ring ceremony in the presence of 150 guests. Mr. Jim Davies served his brother as the best man and Ron Fiewelling of Red Deer, Herb Brubaker of Edmonton, Clifton Scott, brother of the bride and Clifford Lindskog acted as ushers. Mrs. Jack Scott, mother of the bride wore a flattering cocoa beige, lace afternoon dress and beige slippers. The beige monochrome was accented with a pink feathered cloche and pink gloves as well as a corsage of pink rose buds. The groom's mother, Mrs. William Davies, chose a navy blue two piece crepe suit and she wore a small light blue beaver felt hat and light blue gloves. She was also wearing a pink rose bud corsage.

A Wedding Reception at the Elk's Community Hall followed the church ceremony. The candlelight theme was carried into the reception hall with white, white and silver decorations were predominant. The reception guests were received at 7 p.m. by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davies, assisted by Mr.

Jim Davies. The banquet that followed was catered by the Anglican W.A. and Mr. Ernest Lindskog served as a very capable master of ceremonies. The bride's Uncle, Don Carr, of Calgary, complimented his niece, Sherry, with a flattering toast in which the guests participated. After the cutting of the wedding cake the hall was arranged for dancing to Row's Riverside Orchestra. Miss Sheila Vandergrieff was in charge of the bride's bouquet, and Miss Carol Lindskog and Miss Eunice Davies served at the punch bowls. Before departing on their honeymoon, Sherry and Charles returned to the reception to greet their guests again. For her honeymoon trip, Mrs. Davies was wearing a two piece Pacific blue suit, a small light blue hat, red shoes and was carrying a red bag. The red rose bud corsage that had centered her bridal bouquet was pinned prettily to her suit.

Out of town guests attending the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Phillips, Robert Phillips, Wesley Phillips, Pat Rafuse, Mr. and Mrs. William Prescally, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Prescally, all of Rickard, Sask., Mrs. MacIntyre of North Battleford, the groom's grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Colter of Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bosworth, Mr. and Mrs. Don Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chaucon, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fredell, Mrs. Bithwood, grandmother of the bride all of Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Kim Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Kim Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Scott, the bride's grandparents, of Buck Lake, Mrs. Dorothy Reed, Totogun Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lewis, Miss Joan Brum and Mr. Len Smith of Edmonton.

We, at the High School, like to feel that we can always count on the citizens of Drayton Valley for their support in our various activities. This feeling has been justified many times in the past; in chocolate bar sales, in our subscription sales and again in the wonderful attendance we had for Amateur Night; and we truly appreciate it. Now that we have to obtain advertisements for our Yearbook, we'd like to be able to count on these same people once again, for their generous help. However, we have found that the merchants have already seen and bought ads, from a Yearbook representative that they thought was ours and who turns out not to be.

If you are approached by a student that is supposed to be selling something, or obtaining donations for the High School, ask for their Student Identification Card. Should it be a Senior High School Student's Union project, the student should also have a Student's Union Card. Never accept a letter as identification unless it is properly signed by the Principal of the High School, Mr. T. M. McManis, or by myself, the Senior High School Students' Union President. Through checking these cards we hope to help you donations from going astray and keep them for our future project.

Drayton Valley's Teen Town Club is planning on having a dance to top off dance on Saturday, January 30th, in the Scout Hall. The Pembina Pipe-Blue Orchestra will be supplying the music for all the "Varsity Kitchens" that gather and admission has been set at fifty cents a head. Teens from in and around Drayton Valley, between the age of thirteen and nineteen, are more than welcome and are assured of having a wonderful time.

On Friday and Saturday of this week-end, Beverley Edicott, the High School's Candidate for Caminal Queen, will be in the Hudson's Bay Store selling tickets for the Ice Carnival. We sincerely hope that you'll take this opportunity to stop in and meet the charming young lady that is representing our School and at the same time, purchase your tickets for Drayton Valley's Fifth Annual Winter Ice Carnival.

On Friday, February 12th, the "Boys" will be holding a "Dinner for the Boys" in the gymnasium to raise funds for it's publication. Each of the Students' Unions at our school has been asked to sponsor a Queen and on the 12th, one of the four young ladies will be crowned "Queen of the Ball". The dance promises to be a very good one and already some of the boys are lining up their dates. See you there, Kids!

Until next week then, adios amigos.

DEAR SCHOOL DAZE REPORTER: Since you have so willingly socialized your fellow classmates this letter is most kindly dedicated to you. Are you so good that you cannot write about yourself? A little bid with a fair-haired head has been telling us that you had quite a struggle with four girls last Thursday evening. Could it be that you're after them, or are they after you? It always pays to tell the truth! We are awaiting your answer. Thank you.

We remain, yours truly,

The new session of Parliament got taken by the Government at underway on January 14th with the session, is the setting up of a speech from the Throne. Of this new Department of Forestry, with or interest in this speech, which is a great deal of the forestry of gives a broad outline of action to Alberta concentrated in our con-

These include research, conserva- tion, markets, protection and de- velopment, all of which are of prime importance.

The Indians who have until now not been a very big factor in the scene, it should be emphasized that this enfranchisement is given without any loss of their present *to see the "Face of Service"

Put yourself in Mr. Brown's place - haven't you ever wondered about your electric bill? What services it represents? Mr. Brown has wondered, and his daughter, Dianne is curious, too. Mrs. Brown, working in that comfortable all-electric kitchen is probably more interested in the results of her electric cooking than in the source. She's interested in people, though - she likes to know who they are and what they do. So, we at Calgary Power have arranged to take this family on tour. We want to show them our company from beginning to end, how it works, what it does. More important, we want them to meet the people who make it work. Join their tour, on this page, in the months ahead.

THE GLORY OF CHRIST

Taken from "Red Sea Mission Report".

The Lord Jesus, who gave Himself for us, and to whom we belong, and with whom we shall dwell for ever, is called the Lord of Glory.

The word glory is a difficult word to translate or explain, but there is something in the spiritual con- sciousness of the quickened Chris- tian that can interpret it. It is the overflow of grace; it is the wine of life; it is the forecast of heaven; it is a flash from the Throne and an inspiration from the heart of God which we may have, and in which we may live.

His glory is prophesied in Isaiah 40:5, "The glory of the Lord shall be revealed." Prophecy is fulfilled in Luke 2:9, "The glory of the Lord shone round about them." In John 1:14, prophecy and fulfillment culminated in a personal revelation which inspired the beloved disciples to exclaim, "We beheld His glory."

In the Old Testament we have numerous expressions referring to "the Lord of Glory." As such, He "appeared," "abode," "lived," and "the heavens declare the glory of God." Moses longed for a vision of this heavenly splendour and prayed, "Show me Thy glory." What was then revealed to Moses only in part is now revealed in fuller measure, for "God... hath spoken unto us by His Son, who being the brightness of His glory, and the express image of His person." Prior to the coming of Christ the glory of God was only partially revealed through prophets but perfectly in Christ. The Holy Spirit in unfolding the glory of Christ declares Him to be the Maker of all worlds; the Upholder of all things; the Revealer of all Deity; the Sin Purger and the One who is above all angels. Glory has been revealed, it has been seen and we may see it. Isaiah "saw" "sitting upon a throne." "The God of glory appeared... unto... Abraham." The Apostle John re- flected in fullest measure the glory which he saw of "the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth," and was trans- formed by it.

The extent of transforming glory must not and cannot be limited. It is a glory which exceeds all others.

Food for thought....

By: Danita Boiling.

On occasions the well goes dry! This is one of those occasions and there are no inspiring thoughts forthcoming, mainly because I'm a bit tired and weary. At a recent wedding and reception I watched the endless energy and enthusiasm of the young guests and it recalled to my mind a poem I have that expresses my own feelings quite well. Having read this poem at a recent meeting it will not be new to some of you but here it is anyway. The 'poet' is unknown or was 'too tired' to sign her name.

MY GET-UP AND GO HAS GOT-UP AND WENT.
Now then, you have the whole story wrapped up in a nutshell of rhyming words but just to prove to myself that I'm not a total 'lose' this week, I will include a recipe.

This Raisin French Toast recipe is a good one for Sunday breakfasts or late evening snacks and I'll suggest that, if possible, you get raisin bread, not sliced, and then slice it about 2/3 of an inch thick.

'Old age is golden', or I've heard it said,
But sometimes I wonder, as I get into bed,
My ears in a drawer, my teeth in a cup,
My eyes on a table until I wake up.

Ere sleep dums my eyes, I say to myself,
'Is there anything else I should lay on the shelf?'

I'm happy to say, as I close my door,
All my friends are the same, perhaps even more.

When I was a young gal, my slippers were red,
I could kick my young heels right over my head.

But when I grew older my slippers were blue,
But still I could dance the whole night thru.

Now that I'm old, my slippers are black,
I walk to the store, but puff my way back.

But I really don't mind, as I think All Hi-C members are urged to be present. The meeting will conclude with the usual refreshments.

Of all the grand places my 'Get-up' has been.

Now since I've retired from life's competition
I buy myself with complete reposition,
I get up each morning, dust off my mirth,
Pick up the paper and read the "chir".
If my name is listed I know I'm not dead,
So I eat a good breakfast and crawl back to bed!

Combine 1/4 cup maple-blended syrup, 2 tablespoons milk (or light cream) 2 eggs and 1/4 teaspoon salt in a shallow bowl. Dip 6 slices of raisin bread quickly in the egg mixture. Melt 1/4 cup shortening in a large skillet-then saute the bread slices; turning to brown on both sides. Sprinkle with cinnamon and serve with additional syrup. Makes 3 servings.

The presentation of flags is being made to Drayton Valley Lions Club President Don McKenzie, by District Governor Lion Paul Guenette, 84 flags are in the standard, representing every country in which Lionsism is found. Drayton Valley received the award for the largest percentage increase in club membership in 1959.

LIONS CHARTER NIGHT BANQUET

The Second Annual Charter Night for Drayton Valley Lions Club was held in the Cardium Room on Saturday evening, January 30th, commencing at 6:30. Right from the beginning the evening got off to a good start, with members enjoying chairs and renewing acquaintanceships before dinner.

The dinner consisted of half fried chicken, preceded by tomato juice and a fruit cocktail. Seated at the head table were Lion President Don McKenzie and Mrs. McKenzie, Past President and Zone Chairman Dunc Larbalestier and Mrs. Larbalestier, Lion Padre, Father Scriven, Master of Ceremonies Lion Carman Fairman and Mrs. Fairman, His Worship Mayor Arden Meier and Mrs. Meier, Club Historian Lion Ron Carter and Mrs. Carter, Lion District Governor Lion Paul Guenette and Mrs. Guenette, Secretary Lion Al Miles, Rotary Club President Howard Pickup and Mrs. Pickup and Lion Bruce Aubrey of Ladoc Club. Lion Aubrey was Master of Ceremonies at the time the Drayton Valley Club was chartered, in January, 1958. The ban at that time, there has been a large number of transfers since then, so that there are now 33 of the original charter members, but the club now has an active membership of 83, making it one of the largest clubs in the district.

Song-leader for the song-fest was Lion Lorne Stevenson. Invocation was given by Father Scriven. Tail Twister Don Booker had an assistant for the evening, Junior Tail Twister Keith Peterson, and both performed their duties....

Following dinner and the Toast to the Queen, the introduction of Guests and visiting clubs was made by Toastmaster Lion Carman Fairman. Toast to the Ladies was given by Lion 2nd Vice-President Lion Lorne Stevenson, with the reply to the Toast given by Mrs. Shirley Tolcher. The Mayors Address, given by Lion Arden Meier is to be found elsewhere in this paper. Following the Mayor's Address Zoon Chair- man Lion Dunc Larbalestier introduced District Governor, well-known and well-liked Lion Paul Guenette, of South Edmonton Club, which was the sponsoring club for the Drayton Valley Club when they were first organized.

Lion Paul spoke briefly for his vast fund of knowledge of Lionsism. He stated that Lions are men who seldom forget to live up to the responsibilities of service which have been entrusted to them. He spoke glowingly of the gala occasion that had brought the Lions and their Ladies together on that Charter night which marked another anniversary in community service. In closing he said that while the past must take care of itself, the future is ahead and we can make of it what we will.

Lion Historian Ron Carter then gave a resume of the brief history of the club and its impressive list of achievements in the few brief months since it was first organized and chartered. He grouped the listing into three categories.

1. Community Project, 2. Social Activities and 3. Fund Raising Activities. He mentioned that when the club was first organized, Lion organizer Phil Hastings came out here and found two former Lions, Jim Glenesk, then with National Supply in Drayton Valley and since transferred to Edmonton, and Don McKenzie, of Ken's Men's Wear. Lion Jim became the Charter president and Lion Don is present president. From this nucleus the club has grown until it has inducted over a hundred members since its organization, in Drayton Valley.

A very informative address was given by Rotary President Howard Pickup, on the subject: "The Future of Drayton Valley." Mr. Pickup used prepared graphs to illustrate the difference between the Pembina Field and other oil fields in Alberta, pointing out certain factors that would tend to produce a larger town to service and supply this field than has been the case

Mr. Curt Clauson

This week's personality deals with a man who was born in Europe, but is now a good citizen of Canada, and of Drayton Valley.

Curt Clauson was born in Aalborg, Denmark. His family moved to Holland and Curt and his older brother attended school in Holland, which is located at Leiden, Holland. After summer holidays Curt planned on enrolling in the University in the fall, and he, his father and his brother spent vacation time in England. Just before the opening of the fall term at the University, War broke out in Europe; September 3, 1939. His older brother and father immediately joined up with the British forces. His father joined the R.A.F. and his brother joined the Airborne Division, Paratroopers.

Curt tried to get into the R.A.F., but was turned down because he was too young. However, he was accepted the next spring, even though he was still underage. A few months later he went into the Paratroopers. He saw action in a number of theatres during the war, including the Pacific, North Africa, Sicily, France, Holland and Denmark. He was parachuted into Denmark to supply equipment to the underground forces in 1943. His last jump was made into Antwerp in September, 1944. In that great battle he was wounded, and both his father and his brother were killed in action at Antwerp, their deaths occurring one day apart, at the same place.

In the battle of Antwerp, Curt spent about five months in hospital, getting out just before the war ended. When the war ended, his division, the 8th Airborne Force Battalion was the first into the concentration camps south of Hamburg to release the prisoners. They released about 3,000 men and women.

After the war Curt was transferred to Military Intelligence, in Germany. During that time he acted as interpreter for the War Criminals Court in Hamburg, interpreting Danish, Dutch, German and English.

Demobilized from the force in November, 1945, Curt spent three months as Press Correspondent for the Daily Mirror, the Daily Express, and the Scandinavian Press, in Germany. During this time he was waiting for his immigration visa to Canada to be finalized. In March, 1946, he landed in Canada, at Montreal, and came on to Edmonton. He went to work for Imperial Oil Company in Devon, where he worked for four years. Three years of this time he spent as a volunteer fire fighter with the Devon Fire Department. In January, 1955, he came to Drayton Valley, working for Mobil Oil, until May 1959 when he established his own "Photo studio."

He has organized the volunteer fire department in Drayton Valley
